Notes of the Stage

Ellen Van Vilkenburg and Maurice Browne, resenting "Candida" at the Greenwich Vil-age Theater, announce an extension of the un of the play beyond the three weeks first Managed having discovered they.

The Selwyns will present "Partners Again," he new Potosh and Perlinutler play, with Sarnay Bernard and Alexander Carr, at tamford on Friday, April 15, regardless of whether the latest title slips off by then or to the report that the play has a pretty chorus.

The first seat sold for the opening per-rmance of Miss Charlotte Greenwood in Letty Pepper" at the Vanderbill Theater ext Monday was ordered yeaterday over the ong distance telephone from Phileadelphia, here the musical comedy has been skipping, bout for four weeks. As the purchaser riered the same seat in the first row for the first eight performances this gave rise to the report that the play has a pretry lorus.

Herbert Corthell has succeeded Jack Hazard. Hanaford Wilson and Richard Carle as the Kiss in "Tangerine" at the Casino Thester, having also preceded them as the sovereign of this detail the laie. His reappearance proves again that they always come back to the scene of the crime.

Misa Helen Lowell will have an important role in "The Night Cail," the coming melodrams, which will act as a suburb of "Monthiartre" at matinees at the Belmont Theater. Misa Lowell was fated for the part, being president of the Playera Assembly, which will make the production.

If you saw any men throwing their hats in the air along Broadway last night it was probably, because they had hist learned that workmen had started restoring the famous chorus runway in the Winter Gardon for the opening there next week of Eddle Cantor in Maice II Snappy.

An account of the demonstration by Edward F. Glawin of his wireless controlled automobile torpedo in "Get Together" at the Hippedrone was broadcasted by the Westinghouse station at Newark last night, as well as by Mark Luescher's mimcograph.

Irving Berlin has composed a new Dixle song, "Some Sumy Day," which is being propelled by the Vestinghouse at a new Dixle song, "Some Sumy Day," which is being propelled by the Vestinghouse of the Brox Sisters in the "Music Box Revue."

J. M. Kerrigan and Barry Macollum have now been safely placed in the cast supporting Miss Helen MacKellar in "The Shadow."
